Meet The Team
Miss Weston’s message

Wow! What a journey we have been on to get the first issue of the ‘Speaky Peaky’ out to you all. The team and myself are very excited to end the year with our first issue. We have learnt a lot along the way together, made mistakes and seen ideas come to life.

I want to take this opportunity to thank all of the ‘Speaky Peaky’ team. They had the vision and the dream to make it happen. I am so proud of all of the team for starting something new for our wonderful school. They have given up lunchtimes for planning and presenting meetings and some even worked on this issue from home. Without the dedication of this team Peakhurst South would not have the ‘Speaky Peaky’ today.

As a team, we hope you enjoy the first issue. We look forward to bringing you the ‘Speaky Peaky’ more regularly in 2015.

Miss Weston xx
Welcome to issue #1 of our new student magazine ‘Speaky Peaky’. We are excited to finally have issue #1 complete. Here is a little information about your 2014 ‘Speaky Peaky’ crew.

This year the 2014 Commonwealth Games were held in Glasgow, Scotland. The games started on the 23 of July 2014 and ended on the 3 of August.

There are many countries/islands competing in the Commonwealth Games this year and if you look below there is a table of the top five countries and their medal count.

Mrs Brown’s husband Michael Brown is also competing in the Commonwealth Games this year. Michael competed in shooting, his event was the Small Bore, which is 50m Rifle in 3 positions.

Michael Brown has participated at the Commonwealth Games in Manchester in 2002 and in Melbourne in 2006. His career achievements include 2nd in the 3x40 Rifle at the Oceania Championship in 2013, 8th in individual and 2nd in pairs at the Commonwealth Games in Melbourne in 2006.

Q1. What’s your secret talent?
A2. I was a good swimmer (50m freestyle in under 30 seconds but not anymore). I can bench press 30kg and I like to play handball and all other sports.

Q2. If you could be an animal what would you be? Why?
A2. I would be a dolphin because I like the ocean.

Q3. What’s your favourite subject to teach?
A3. Writing because I can choose good topics.

Q4. What do you like to do in your spare time?
A4. Surfing, going to the gym and playing oz-tag.

Q5. Tell us something interesting or funny about yourself?
A5. I wanted to be a primary school teacher when I was four and that never changed.

Q6. Principal challenge: How many real push-ups can you do in one minute?
A6. Miss Eaton did 40 real push-ups in one minute. Wow!
Art Attack!

Let's get our thinking hats on! Each issue we will be choosing a new art theme. You can create your art using any materials you like.

The most creative entries will be printed in the next issue.

This issue we asked students to create a 'colourful' artwork. Wow, we sure had some colourful entries. Check them out below.

Mollie in 34S created a super colourful rainbow

Jeanny in 56P
Created a colourful geometric design

Colourful abstract squiggles
By Chelsea

Thanks to everyone who contributed to this issues art challenge! We will let you know in early 2015 what the next theme is.
Welcome to the sports report where you will find information about NRL & AFL.

What’s happening in our world?

Reported by Kristy

2014 saw many different news events. Some were sad and others were happy. Here is a wrap up of 2014 world news.

Did you guys know about the 2014 Fifa world cup? Well after you read this you will. The Fifa world cup started on Thursday, June 12 and ended on Sunday, July 13. The 2014 Fifa world cup was held in Brazil. The grand was Germany versus Argentina and Germany won the game 1-0.

Ebola is a serious disease and it can be fatal if untreated. Ebola was first discovered in 1976. It appeared in two simultaneous outbreaks, one in Nzara, Sudan, and the other in Yambuku, Democratic Republic of Congo. The second appearance occurred in a village near the Ebola River, from which the disease takes its name.

Athletes were training and training until the 2014 Sochi Winter Olympics occurred. The 2014 Sochi Winter Olympics went from the 7th of February up until the 23rd. The winter Olympics occur every four years and this year it was in Sochi, which is in Russia.
In this issue of music and entertainment we feature articles about the latest movies and songs.

We asked some students to rate ‘How to Train your Dragon 2’ and here are some of the answers.

- Serena 1W: 5 stars
- Andrew 2J: 5 stars
- Aiden 3/4S: 5 stars
- Jessica 5/6P: 5 stars

We also asked some students to tell us if they found ‘Rio or Rio 2’ better.

- Marshall -1W: Rio 2
- Autumn -2J: Rio 2
- Sophia -3/4E: Rio 2
- Harrison -3/4E: Rio 2

We also checked the top songs to listen to, so make sure you listen out for:

- Que Sera by Justice Crew
- Let it go- Frozen
- Am I wrong by Nico & Vinz
- We are done by Madden Brothers
- Rude by MAGIC
- Shake it Off- Taylor Swift
- Break Free- Ariana Grande
- Everything is awesome- Lego movie

Quick Quiz

1. Who were runners up in the FIFA 2014 World Cup?
2. How many GOLD MEDALS did Australia win in the Commonwealth Games?
3. Which country hosted the Commonwealth Games?
4. Who won the NRL 2014 Grand Final?
5. Which NRL team has won the most championships?
Peaky Pets

At Peakhurst South we just love our pets! If you would like the chance to tell us a little bit about your pet please give a digital picture of you with your pet (on a USB) to a student magazine reporter or Miss Weston. Please include a few short sentences telling us all about your pet. We will print these in the future issues of the Speaky Peaky.

Special guest teacher Mrs Wright wrote into the magazine to share all about her two gorgeous pets ‘Bundy’ and ‘Lucky.’

This is Bundy. As you can see he is a very relaxed pet. He keeps me company while I garden. Bundy enjoys listening to the radio and sitting on my outdoor furniture. He’s great!

This is Lucky. He is my big dog. He is part cattle dog, staffy and dalmation. Lucky enjoys eating porridge and drinking my leftover coffee (as you can see in this photo) We enjoy walking to the duck pond and sitting in the sunshine.

This is Lucas in 45W dog Harley! Look at that gorgeous fur! What a cutie! I’m sure he loves being brushed.
Well that’s it for issue #1 of the ‘Speaky Peaky’. We hope you enjoyed reading through the magazine and we can’t wait to create issue #2 in early 2015. I guess there’s just one more thing to say…

Merry Christmas

Have a safe and fun holidays!
From Miss Weston
& the ‘Speaky Peaky’ crew.
